How do I know if the MSDS I have now is already in the new format?

If the following criteria are met, you have the new format already on hand.

- 1. Does it have 11 or 16 sections?
- 2. Do the 11 or 16 sections match the following order?
  - Section 1, Identification includes product identifier; manufacturer or distributor name, address, phone number; emergency phone number; recommended use; restrictions on use.
  - ✓ Section 2, Hazard(s) identification includes all hazards regarding the chemical; required label elements.
  - ✓ Section 3, Composition/information on ingredients includes information on chemical ingredients; trade secret claims.
  - ✓ Section 4, First-aid measures includes important symptoms/ effects, acute, delayed; required treatment.
  - ✓ Section 5, Fire-fighting measures lists suitable extinguishing techniques, equipment; chemical hazards from fire.
  - ✓ Section 6, Accidental release measures lists emergency procedures; protective equipment; proper methods of containment and cleanup.
  - ✓ Section 7, Handling and storage lists precautions for safe handling and storage, including incompatibilities.
  - ✓ Section 8, Exposure controls/personal protection lists OSHA's Permissible Exposure Limits (PELs); Threshold Limit Values (TLVs); appropriate engineering controls; personal protective equipment (PPE).
  - ✓ Section 9, Physical and chemical properties lists the chemical's characteristics.
  - ✓ Section 10, Stability and reactivity lists chemical stability and possibility of hazardous reactions.
  - ✓ Section 11, Toxicological information includes routes of exposure; related symptoms, acute and chronic effects; numerical measures of toxicity.
  - ✓ Sections 12-16 are not required by OSHA:
    - Section 12, Ecological considerations
    - Section 13, Disposal considerations
    - Section 14, Transport information
    - Section 15, Regulatory information
    - Section 16, Other information, includes the date of preparation or last revision.
- 3. Does Section 2 include pictograms, hazard statements, precautionary statements and the signal word?

If yes to all of the above it is in the new format.
